Amelia Island Museum of History
333 South Third Street • Fernandina Beach, FL
904-261-7378 • www.ameliamuseum.org
View artifacts showcasing 4,000 years of island history with exhibits on Timucuan Indians, Spanish missions, the Civil War, Florida railroads, and the turpentine industry.

Bulow Plantation Ruins Historic Park
Intersection of County Road 2002 (Old Kings Road) and Bulow Plantation Road • Palm Coast, FL
386-315-3286 • www.floridastateparks.org/bulow/Plantation
Explore the ruins of a 19th-century (1823-1836) plantation including a coquina sugar mill, the foundations of the manor house, slave cabins, walls, and a spring house.

Kingsley Plantation National Historic Site
11964 Mandarin Road • Jacksonville, FL
904-268-0784 • www.mandarinmuseum.net
Explore a typical 1800s Mandarin homestead—cabins operated by Zephaniah Kingsley as a cotton plantation between 1814 and 1837.

Fort Matanzas National Monument
1745 Fort Matanzas Loop Road • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-0530 • www.nps.gov/fomu
Learn about Spanish missions, the Civil War, Florida, and the turpentine industry.

New Smyrna Museum of History – Turnbull Plantation – Old Fort Park
120 Sams Avenue • New Smyrna Beach, FL
386-478-0022 • www.nsbhistory.org
Learn about the history of New Smyrna Beach with exhibits on Native American sites and a gallery devoted to Turnbull's Smyrna Settlement, home to 2,000 indentured Mexican, Greek, Italian and Corsican settlers between 1781 and 1777.

Fort Caroline
1755 King Street • Jacksonville, FL
904-389-4851 • www.floridastateparks.org/caroline
Learn about the arrival of the Spanish in the U.S. and the fort, which helped to defend Spanish St. Augustine.

Canaveral National Seashore – Turtle Mound and Seminole Rest
7611 South Atlantic Avenue • New Smyrna Beach, FL
386-449-6801 • www.nps.gov/cana
Explore Turtle Mound and Seminole Rest, located within a lovely botanical garden with dinosaur statuary.

Canaveral National Seashore – Blue Spring State Park – Thursby Mound
2140 West Beach Road • Ormond Beach, FL
386-486-1000 • www.nps.gov/cana
Explore the ruins of a 19th-century (1821-1836) plantation, where you can see remains of coquina structures along with interpretive exhibits.

Cruger-DePeyster Sugar Mill Ruins
600 Old Mission Road • New Smyrna Beach, FL
View beautiful coquina arches and the remains of an 1830s sugar mill.

Mount Royal Indian Mound
Mount Royal Airpark off CR 309, Indian Mound Road and William Bartram Drive • Welaka, FL
View a large Indian burial mound with updated kiosk and signage.

Hontoon Island State Park
2309 River Ridge Road • Deland, FL
386-775-3609 • www.volusia.org/services/community-services/parks-recreation-and-culture/parks-and-trails/park-facilities-and-locations/historical-parks/hontoonisland
Delve into Native American life through the museum's archaeological exhibits and hike out to the shell mound.

American Indian Site
New Smyrna Museum of History – Thursby Mound
120 Sams Avenue • New Smyrna Beach, FL
386-478-0022 • www.nsbhistory.org
Explore the ruins of a 19th-century (1821-1836) plantation, where you can see remains of coquina structures along with interpretive exhibits.

Blue Spring State Park – Thursby Mound
2100 West French Avenue • Orange City, FL
386-775-3609 • www.volusia.org/services/community-services/parks-recreation-and-culture/parks-and-trails/park-facilities-and-locations/historical-parks/mountroyal
View a large Indian burial mound with updated kiosk and signage.

Dunlawton Plantation Sugar Mill Ruins
Botanical Gardens aka Bongoland
600 Old Mission Road • New Smyrna Beach, FL
Investigate the coquina and brick ruins of an 1830s sugar mill complex and assortment of sugar mill processing equipment, located within a lovely botanical garden with dinosaur statuary.

Dunlawton Plantation Sugar Mill Ruins
500 Old Sugar Mill Road • Port Orange, FL
386-767-1735 • www.dunlawtonamuseum.com
Explore the ruins of a 19th-century (1821-1836) plantation, where you can see remains of coquina structures along with interpretive exhibits.

Blue Spring State Park – Thursby Mound
2100 West French Avenue • Orange City, FL
386-775-3609 • www.volusia.org/services/community-services/parks-recreation-and-culture/parks-and-trails/park-facilities-and-locations/historical-parks/mountroyal
View a large Indian burial mound with updated kiosk and signage.

Blue Spring State Park – Thursby Mound
2100 West French Avenue • Orange City, FL
386-775-3609 • www.volusia.org/services/community-services/parks-recreation-and-culture/parks-and-trails/park-facilities-and-locations/historical-parks/mountroyal
View a large Indian burial mound with updated kiosk and signage.
Explore Archaeology

Off the Beaten Path in St. Augustine!

Mission of Nombre de Dios and Shrine of Our Lady of Le Leche
27 Ocean Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2809 • www.missionandshrine.org

View the 208-foot cross commemorating Pedro de Menendez de Aviles’s landing in 1565, the first parish Mass, the first Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the first Spanish Mission in America. See artifacts—including Menendez’s casket—on display in the Mission’s museum.

St. Photios Greek Orthodox National Shrine
42 St. George Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2805 • www.stphotios.com

Visit the shrine and exhibit dedicated to the Greek colonists who fled to St. Augustine after the failure of the 1768 New Smyrna settlement.

Ximenez-Fatio House
20 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org

Visit the most excavated property in St. Augustine and see the Caravaca Cross.

Fountain of Youth Archaeology Park
11 Magnolia Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3168 • www.fountainofyouthflorida.com

Learn about the founding of St. Augustine by Spanish Conquistadors and the Timucuan Indians who first welcomed them.

Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-825-6830 • www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html

Explore the city’s archaeology through an exhibit by the City of St. Augustine Archaeology Program.

St. Augustine Art Association
22 Marine Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2310 • www.staaa.org

See artifacts from—and art inspired by—excavations at the Association of Sir Francis Drake’s 16th century raid of the town.

St. Augustine Lighthouse and Maritime Museum
81 Lighthouse Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-0745 • www.staugustinelighthouse.com

After climbing to the top of the lighthouse built in 1874, take a look at artifacts from the British Industry shipwreck at the museum in the keepers house, ongoing conservation projects, and the home of the Lighthouse Archaeology Maritime Program.

The Oldest House
14 St. Francis Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2872 • www.staugustinehistoricalsociety.org

Explore life during the early 1700s at the Gonzalez-Alvarez House, the oldest remaining Spanish Colonial home in Florida. While there, visit an ornamental garden and witness St. Augustine’s history in two museums and a changing exhibition gallery.

St. Augustine Lighthouse
32 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org

See artifacts—including Menendez’s casket—on display in the Mission’s museum.

The Oldest House
14 St. Francis Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2872 • www.staugustinehistoricalsociety.org

Explore life during the early 1700s at the Gonzalez-Alvarez House, the oldest remaining Spanish Colonial home in Florida. While there, visit an ornamental garden and witness St. Augustine’s history in two museums and a changing exhibition gallery.

St. Augustine Lighthouse and Maritime Museum
81 Lighthouse Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-0745 • www.staugustinelighthouse.com

After climbing to the top of the lighthouse built in 1874, take a look at artifacts from the British Industry shipwreck at the museum in the keepers house, ongoing conservation projects, and the home of the Lighthouse Archaeology Maritime Program.

Fountain of Youth Archaeology Park
11 Magnolia Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3168 • www.fountainofyouthflorida.com

Learn about the founding of St. Augustine by Spanish Conquistadors and the Timucuan Indians who first welcomed them.

Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-825-6830 • www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html

Explore the city’s archaeology through an exhibit by the City of St. Augustine Archaeology Program.

St. Augustine Art Association
22 Marine Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2310 • www.staaa.org

See artifacts from—and art inspired by—excavations at the Association of Sir Francis Drake’s 16th century raid of the town.

St. Augustine Lighthouse
32 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org

See artifacts—including Menendez’s casket—on display in the Mission’s museum.

The Oldest House
14 St. Francis Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2872 • www.staugustinehistoricalsociety.org

Explore life during the early 1700s at the Gonzalez-Alvarez House, the oldest remaining Spanish Colonial home in Florida. While there, visit an ornamental garden and witness St. Augustine’s history in two museums and a changing exhibition gallery.

St. Augustine Lighthouse and Maritime Museum
81 Lighthouse Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-0745 • www.staugustinelighthouse.com

After climbing to the top of the lighthouse built in 1874, take a look at artifacts from the British Industry shipwreck at the museum in the keepers house, ongoing conservation projects, and the home of the Lighthouse Archaeology Maritime Program.

Fountain of Youth Archaeology Park
11 Magnolia Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3168 • www.fountainofyouthflorida.com

Learn about the founding of St. Augustine by Spanish Conquistadors and the Timucuan Indians who first welcomed them.

Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-825-6830 • www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html

Explore the city’s archaeology through an exhibit by the City of St. Augustine Archaeology Program.

St. Augustine Art Association
22 Marine Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2310 • www.staaa.org

See artifacts from—and art inspired by—excavations at the Association of Sir Francis Drake’s 16th century raid of the town.

St. Augustine Lighthouse
32 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org

See artifacts—including Menendez’s casket—on display in the Mission’s museum.

The Oldest House
14 St. Francis Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2872 • www.staugustinehistoricalsociety.org

Explore life during the early 1700s at the Gonzalez-Alvarez House, the oldest remaining Spanish Colonial home in Florida. While there, visit an ornamental garden and witness St. Augustine’s history in two museums and a changing exhibition gallery.

St. Augustine Lighthouse and Maritime Museum
81 Lighthouse Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-0745 • www.staugustinelighthouse.com

After climbing to the top of the lighthouse built in 1874, take a look at artifacts from the British Industry shipwreck at the museum in the keepers house, ongoing conservation projects, and the home of the Lighthouse Archaeology Maritime Program.

Fountain of Youth Archaeology Park
11 Magnolia Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3168 • www.fountainofyouthflorida.com

Learn about the founding of St. Augustine by Spanish Conquistadors and the Timucuan Indians who first welcomed them.

Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-825-6830 • www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html

Explore the city’s archaeology through an exhibit by the City of St. Augustine Archaeology Program.

St. Augustine Art Association
22 Marine Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2310 • www.staaa.org

See artifacts from—and art inspired by—excavations at the Association of Sir Francis Drake’s 16th century raid of the town.

St. Augustine Lighthouse
32 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org

See artifacts—including Menendez’s casket—on display in the Mission’s museum.

The Oldest House
14 St. Francis Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2872 • www.staugustinehistoricalsociety.org

Explore life during the early 1700s at the Gonzalez-Alvarez House, the oldest remaining Spanish Colonial home in Florida. While there, visit an ornamental garden and witness St. Augustine’s history in two museums and a changing exhibition gallery.

St. Augustine Lighthouse and Maritime Museum
81 Lighthouse Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-0745 • www.staugustinelighthouse.com

After climbing to the top of the lighthouse built in 1874, take a look at artifacts from the British Industry shipwreck at the museum in the keepers house, ongoing conservation projects, and the home of the Lighthouse Archaeology Maritime Program.

Fountain of Youth Archaeology Park
11 Magnolia Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3168 • www.fountainofyouthflorida.com

Learn about the founding of St. Augustine by Spanish Conquistadors and the Timucuan Indians who first welcomed them.

Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-825-6830 • www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html

Explore the city’s archaeology through an exhibit by the City of St. Augustine Archaeology Program.